

China Visits SeniorNet - Press Release 1/6/14

Great news to kick off 2014.

The below press release captured worldwide attention.

According to Business Wire, our story was picked up on the first day by cities and provinces within the f
Norway, France, China, Italy, Sweden, Israel, Switzerland, Russian Federation,
I am sure more countries have picked up the story since its first release.

And in the US, all of the major search engines and well as many local newspapers picked up the story.

This is something we can all be very proud of.

Thank you SeniorNet San Jose Willows.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Leslie".

Leslie M. Smith

Chairman of the Board
SeniorNet

---

SeniorNet Shares its Operational Model and Latest Microsoft Workshop with Chinese Delegation

New SeniorNet Headquarters Opens in Florida

January 06, 2014 09:50 AM Eastern Standard Time

FORT MYERS, Fla.--(
egation of 14 dignitaries

BUSINESS WIRE )--The SeniorNet Learning Center in

The delegation, which attended a Microsoft Windows 8 workshop, saw firsthand how class content and

Ms. Li Shumei, Deputy Director, Heilongjiang Provincial Committee on Aging said SeniorNet has, "a very

This was an enlightening new business model for SeniorNet's Chinese counterparts. The delegation was

Leslie M. Smith, IBM Business Development Executive (retired) and SeniorNet Chairman of the Board s

New Headquarters

In a move from its former location in Herndon, Virginia, SeniorNet officially opened its new headquarters

About SeniorNet

SeniorNet ( www.seniornet.org ) is the nation's premier and most respected nonprofit organ

Contacts

SeniorNet

Michele M. Williams, 293-275-2202
mmwilliams@hq.seniornet.org