

Contest Winners

for the

2014 Microsoft Open House C

The curriculum (instructional material) created by these centers demonstrate the growth and transforma

We began in 1986 teaching basic computer skills to seniors. Now, 28 years later, we continue to teach t

Many of our centers are now enjoying the inclusion of the young, boomers, seniors, and folks seeking co

Some centers have reached out to underserved communities in their city.

As technology moves forward, so does SeniorNet.

The winning centers' contribution of instructional material not only serves their local community, but will l

A salute of gratitude from the Board of Directors and Headquarters Staff to the winning centers.

Click here to see the list of winners and curriculum.

Leslie M. Smith

Chairman of the Board

SeniorNet

Don't forget to visit the SeniorNet Mall!

